Nothing herein shall be deemed to constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy securities. BNY Mellon collects fees from Depositary Receipt ("DR") holders pursuant to the terms and conditions of the DRs. BNY Mellon may make payments to sponsored DR issuers to reimburse and/or share revenue from the fees collected from DR holders, or waive fees and expenses for services provided. BNY Mellon may pay a rebate to brokers in connection with unsponsored DR issuances. BNY Mellon may also use brokers, dealers or other service providers that are affiliates and that may earn or share fees and commissions. BNY Mellon may execute DR foreign currency transactions itself or through its affiliates and in such cases it acts as principal counterparty and not as agent, advisor, broker or fiduciary. BNY Mellon has no obligation to obtain the most favorable exchange rate, makes no representation that the rate is a favorable rate and will not be liable for any direct or indirect losses associated with the rate. BNY Mellon earns and retains revenue on its executed foreign currency transactions based on, among other things, the difference between the rate it assigns to the transaction and the rate that it pays and receives for purchases and sales of currencies when buying or selling foreign currency for its own account. The methodology used by BNY Mellon to determine DR conversion rates is available to registered Owners upon request or at: https://www.adrbnymellon.com/us/en/news-and-publications/dr-issuers/asset_upload_file703_197380.pdf.
