Approximate Rates / Interim Dividend in Kind

BNYMellon has been advised that shareholders of Christian Dior SA approved an “Interim Dividend in Kind” of Hermes International shares (the “Hermes Shares”). The Interim Dividend in Kind consisted of a distribution of three (3) Hermes Shares for every two hundred (200) Christian Dior SA shares held as of the local record date of December 16, 2014.

The amount of this Interim Dividend in Kind is 4.20150 EURs per Christian Dior SA share. The entire amount qualifies as a distribution of income for tax purposes.

Since the Hermes Shares were not registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, BNY Mellon sold the shares and will make a cash distribution to holders as of the ADR record date of January 23, 2015.

ADR holders will receive the cash distribution of the proceeds of sale of the Hermes Shares net of the withholding tax and net of fees. U.S. holders may be entitled to a reduced French dividend withholding tax rate of 0% and 15% under the French U.S. tax treaty. DR holders will be advised of DTC's EDS procedures that will allow them to confirm if they are eligible for the tax relief for this cash distribution.

If an affiliate broker was used, the broker would have been paid their customary fees and expenses for their services.

The conversion rate reflects a foreign currency ("FX") transaction ("FX Trade") executed by BNY Mellon as principal counterparty and not as agent, fiduciary or broker. BNY Mellon has no obligation to obtain the "best price" for any FX Trade. BNY Mellon earns revenue on the FX Trade based on, among other things, the difference between the rate it assigns to the FX Trade and the rate that it pays and receives for purchases and sales of currencies when engaging in any offsetting trades for its own account. The decisions BNY Mellon makes on when and how to enter into any offsetting trades, as well as other factors (including but not limited to liquidity and market volatility), affect the revenue BNY Mellon earns on FX Trades.
